

Questions for the teacher observing a child during free play time.

Standard-Based Progress Monitoring Probe #1

1. Does the child participate in associative play?
2. Does the child share with other children?
3. Does the child participate in structured back-and-forth activities with other children?
4. Does the child take turns with other children?
5. Does the child engage in play for an extended period of time?

Standard-Based Progress Monitoring Probe #2

1. Does the child pick a role to play during pretend play?
2. Does the child help assign roles to other children during pretend play?
3. Does the child help make a plan to play with their peers that involves familiar activities?
4. Does the child help make a plan to play with their peers that involves unfamiliar activities?
5. Does the child resolve social conflicts with peers about roles and ideas of play?